Dear Praying Friends,

It seems that Lidia is always looking for problems with the catholic priest! This time it was a new one who looked like an NFL football player. He had seven or eight women followers with him as they were entering the hospital area. Short little Lidia was witnessing to two people when she stopped and gave a Gospel tract to the priest. He asked her: What is this for? And she said: So you can know you're going to heaven! She then asked him if he was going there. He said that he thought so. She began to give him Bible verses, and of course, he contradicted each one. He and his cohorts in crime left after a few minutes. He did take the tract with him! Lidia then finished witnessing to the two people that heard the whole conversation with the priest. They both got saved!

I had told you about a 14 year old boy in the cancer ward who got saved and was asking for the Bible ladies. Alicia, who won him to the Lord, has been in contact with him by way of texts. He seems to be doing better and we have not seen him at the hospital. Please pray for his recovery. And who knows if maybe God would spare his life to use him in His service?

While out soul winning door to door, I was able to talk to two different older ladies. This was at two different occasions. I asked them if they were 100% sure to go to Heaven. They did not know. I began to give them the Gospel and as I would read the verses they already knew some of them. The only difference was that they DID NOT believe what they said. They believed salvation by works and by being good. What a sad situation how the devil uses "his" churches to teach lies and send people to hell! Neither of these ladies trusted Christ as their Saviour!

A few weeks ago we had a special Sunday in Pozo. We gave away Christmas stockings to each of the children. We promoted it in the streets about 40 minutes before the service. Our teens go out giving out Gospel tracts and inviting people to come to church. That day we had 86 in our Pozo services and there were 12 first time visitors! This month we averaged 51 in our Pozo church. A family that used to come, back more than a year ago, came back to church and even three of their adult children came. Before their adult children were adamantly against coming. They have been in church every Sunday for three weeks now.

Please continue to pray for Karina and Antonio and for the ministry here in Zacatecas. May God bless you!!

Yours for souls, Mike and Lidia Lemma
